

HOLE 5, PAR 4

If the wind is blowing in your face on this hole, making par is not easy. The lake comes into play here and, any drive to the left of the fairway leaves you with a very tricky second shot. Even with a good drive a decision will be required whether to lay up in front of the ditch or try for the green which can seem a long way.

